

AIR QUALITY & ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE TRAINING

Register here
or by
QR code

Using civic science and place-based learning, 5th-9th grade NYC DOE teachers will learn how to use air quality monitors to lead students in collecting and analyzing data to determine the causes of and design solutions for historical environmental injustices in their communities.

Details:

Wednesday, October 12, 2022, 9am-4pm
In person, 44-36 Vernon Blvd, LIC, 11101
Lunch provided

Perks:

Earn 6 CTLE credits & receive an air quality monitor to use at your school!

Learn more:

Register at celfeducation.org

ASPD credit eligible:

Details on ASPD Website and Catalog

Questions? Email victoria@celfeducation.org

Hosted by:

Children's Environmental Literacy Foundation