Note 1 Organization

Children’s Environmental Literacy Foundation, Inc. (“CELFF”) is a not-for-profit organization incorporated under the laws of the State of New York. CELFF is dedicated to making sustainability education an integral part of every school’s curricula and culture, from kindergarten through high school by engaging students, teachers and administrators, parents, communities and businesses through professional development, consulting services, and experiential programs.

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Financial Statement Presentation

CELFF is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to classes of net assets as follows:

Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that will be met whether by action of CELFF and/or the passage of time or net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Foundation.

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information that does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with GAAP. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with CELFF’s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2021.

Program Fees Receivable

Program fees receivable are stated at unpaid balances, less an allowance for doubtful accounts. CELFF estimates its allowance based on an analysis of specific customers, taking into consideration the age of the past due accounts and an assessment of the customer’s ability to pay. Management believes program fees receivable are fully collectible and, as such, there is no allowance for doubtful accounts.

Revenue Recognition

Grants and Contributions – In accordance with GAAP, grants and contributions are recorded as with and without donor restriction depending upon the existence and or nature of donor-imposed restrictions. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated purpose restriction is accomplished, with donor restricted net assets are reclassified to without donor restricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from donor restrictions.

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Unconditional promises to give cash or other assets are recognized as support upon notification of the unconditional promise to give. Unconditional promises to give due in subsequent years are reported at the present value of their net realizable value, using risk-free interest rates applicable to the years in which the promises are to be received.

Donated marketable securities and other non-cash assets are recorded as contributions at their estimated fair values at the date of the donation.

Contributed Services – Many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks to assist CELF and related programs. Donated services are recorded as a contribution, in accordance with GAAP, if the services (a) create or enhance non-financial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by CELF. Certain volunteer services are not recognized as a contribution in the financial statements since the recognition criteria was not met.

Program Income – CELF receives fees from schools and others for teacher and other training which are recognized at a point in time when the performance obligation of providing the service is met (i.e. the training occurs). Payments are due within 30 days of the training.

Tax Status

CELF is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not “private foundation” within the meaning of Section 509(a). Management has determined that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The program services and supporting activities of CELF are as follows:

Professional Development and Training

The concepts of sustainability are universal, but every district and school starts from a different place in implementing sustainability education. CELF’s customized professional development (PD) helps schools infuse curriculum and school culture with education for a sustainable future. PD services include: gap analyses of curriculum maps; on-site Education for Sustainability training and resources (specific to grade level and school or district needs and interests); and review of facilities “green” improvements to help infuse projects into curriculum. CELF provides a framework for integrating sustainability concepts into existing curricula, and reviews curriculum exemplars and case studies on implementation of sustainability education at other schools.

Summer Institute

A professional development curriculum intensive designed to advance educational goals together with locally identified social, economic and environmental objectives. The Institute builds practical curriculum integration of stewardship perspectives, skills and action and the restoration, rebuilding, and reconnecting of human communities and community stewardship and civic life.

Civic Science

Civic Science: Inquiry to Action is a semester or year-long program that engages educators and students in project-based Science, Technology, Engineering, the Arts and Mathematics (STEAM) learning outside of the classroom. Tailored to each school and community location, we offer professional learning workshops for teachers paired with on-site support to implement a project-based learning module that connects students to real-world challenges in their own neighborhoods. The program combines the development of 21st century skills with the motivation and creativity generated by solving a problem in one's own community. Participants in the program will implement a project-based STEAM learning unit; participate in two professional learning workshops paired with on-site educator support; collect data with AirBeam monitoring technology combined with HabitatMap crowd-sourced data sharing platform; focus on air-quality while learning pedagogical principles that apply to a range of civic science learning opportunities and engage with local concerns through student-led inquiry.

General and Administration – involves direction of the overall affairs of CELF, including accounting, personnel, administration and related areas.

Fundraising – involves the development of funding sources to aid CELF in the raising of funds for its programs.

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include salaries and fees, payroll taxes, contracted services, rent and insurance, which are allocated on the basis of estimates of staff time and effort, and the percentage of space used. Legal and professional fees, program materials, utilities, information technology, printing and marketing, travel and meals, office expenses, banking and related fees, state filing fees and stipends to participants are allocated directly to the program and supporting service to which they apply.

Concentration of Credit Risk

CELF maintains accounts at financial institutions that may, at times, exceed federally insured limits. CELF does not believe that this practice results in any significant credit risk.

Note 3 Net Assets with Donor Restrictions

Net assets with donor restrictions of $1,965, were restricted for professional development and training at December 31, 2022.

Note 4 Available Resources and Liquidity

CELF regularly monitors liquidity to meets its operating needs and other contractual commitments. For purposes of analyzing resources available to meet general expenditures over a 12-month period, CELF considers all expenditures related to its ongoing educational and other activities as well as the conduct of services undertaken to support those activities to be general expenditures.

Financial assets available for general expenditure within one year of the statement of financial position date consist of the following:

Cash	$ 239,200
Program fees receivable	84,688
Investments	5,364
	329,252
Less: Donor restrictions	(1,965)
	$ 327,287

Note 5 Net Assets Released from Donor Restrictions

Net assets were released from donor restrictions by incurring expenses satisfying the restricted purposes including funding for specific programs, or by occurrence of other events specified by the donors. During the year ended December 31, 2022 the following program restrictions were released:

Professional Development & Training	$ 73,159
Civic Science	174,386
Summer Institute	76,575
Total	$ 324,120

Note 6 Concentrations

For the year ended December 31, 2022, one contributor donated 20% of total contributions and grants.

It is always considered reasonably possible that benefactors, grantors or contributors might be lost in the near term. CELF’s market is concentrated in the New York City metropolitan area.

Note 7 Uncertainties

Economic uncertainties arose due to the spread of the COVID-19 coronavirus. CELF was able to resume in person events during the year and continues to follow local guidelines regarding in person activities.

Note 8 Subsequent Events

CELF has evaluated events and transactions occurring after December 31, 2022 and through June 27, 2023, the date these financial statements were available to be issued, to identify subsequent events requiring disclosure.
