

CELF in the Field

Experiential learning for teachers

CELF in the Field provides formal and non-formal educators with the opportunity to engage in place-based learning through the lens of sustainability. Participants engage and collaborate alongside CELF's education team, fellow educators, and field experts through outdoor experiential learning. CTLE credit offered.

Questions? Email Rowena@celfeducation.org
Register today before available spots fill up!

Upcoming March Events

Winter Field Experiences: Tracks & Traces

What's going on in the winter woods? Join CELF at Teatown Lake Reservation to find out who's still active during the coldest, darkest time of the year. We will take a short hike to search for tracks and traces and learn strategies for applying your new knowledge back in the classroom.

Date: March 14, 2024
Time: 4:00 PM – 5:30 PM
Location: 1600 Spring Valley Rd. Ossining, NY
Cost: FREE

Exploring Sustainability through Apex Predators: Ecological Role of Wolves

What is an Apex Predator? Join CELF at the Wolf Conservation Center to learn about the mythology, ecology, and biology of North American wolves, including the longest running case study of this keystone species—the gray wolf—on Isle Royale. We'll take a short hike to meet the local resident wolves and learn about their impact on the environment.

Date: March 21, 2024
Time: 4:00 PM – 5:30 PM
Location: 7 Buck Run, South Salem, NY
Cost: FREE

Attend for free SNACKS & SWAG! Kids welcome to join.